POL117 – Holidays Policy

1. About this policy

- 1.1 This policy sets out our arrangements for staff wishing to take holidays (also known as annual leave).
- 1.2 This policy covers all staff at all levels and grades, including full-time, part-time, permanent and fixed-term employees, managers, directors, trainees, and homeworkers.
- 1.3 This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and we may amend it at any time. We may also vary the policy as appropriate in any case.

2. Your holiday entitlement

- 2.1 The company's holiday year runs from 1 January to 31 December. If your employment starts or finishes part way through the holiday year, your holiday entitlement during that year shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis rounded up to the nearest whole day.
- 2.2 Unless otherwise set out in your employment contract, you are entitled to 25 days' paid holiday in each holiday year, or the pro rata equivalent if you work part time. In addition, you are entitled to take public holidays in England and Wales or days in lieu where we require staff to work on a public holiday.
- 2.3 Except as set out in this policy, holiday entitlement must be taken during the holiday year in which it accrues. Any holiday not taken by the end of the holiday year will be lost and you will not receive any payment in lieu.
- 2.4 Unused holiday can only be carried over to another holiday year:
 - (a) in cases involving sickness absence, as set out in paragraph 5;
 - (b) in cases of maternity, paternity, adoption, parental or shared parental leave, as set out in paragraph 6;
 - (c) in any other case where your line manager has given permission in writing limited to no more than one week and to be taken in the first three months of the next leave year; and
 - (d) if otherwise required by law.

3. Taking holiday

- 3.1 All holiday must be approved in advance by your line manager. You should normally give at least four weeks' notice of holiday requests to allow planning of rotas or work schedules where necessary. You must not make travel bookings until approval has been given.
- 3.2 We may require you to take (or not to take) holiday on particular dates, including when the business is closed, particularly busy, or during your notice period.

4. Sickness during periods of holiday

- 4.1 If you are sick or injured during a holiday period and would have been incapable of work, you may choose to treat the period of incapacity as sick leave and reclaim the affected days of holiday.
- 4.2 Employees already on sick leave before a pre-arranged period of holiday may choose to cancel any days of holiday that coincide with the period of incapacity and treat them as sick leave.
- 4.3 Dishonest claims or other abuse of this policy will be treated as misconduct under our disciplinary procedure.

5. Long-term sickness absence and holiday entitlement

- 5.1 Holiday entitlement continues to accrue during periods of sick leave.
- 5.2 If you are on a period of sick leave which spans two holiday years, or if you return to work after sick leave so close to the end of the holiday year that you cannot reasonably take your remaining holiday, you may carry over unused holiday to the following leave year.
- 5.3 Any holiday that is carried over under this rule but is not taken within 18 months of the end of the holiday year in which it accrued will be lost.
- 5.4 Alternatively, you can choose to take your paid holiday during your sick leave, in which case you will be paid at your normal rate.

6. Family leave and holiday entitlement

- 6.1 Holiday entitlement continues to accrue during periods of maternity, paternity, adoption, parental or shared parental leave (referred to collectively in this policy as family leave).
- 6.2 If you are planning a period of family leave that is likely to last beyond the end of the holiday year, you should discuss your holiday plans with your manager in good time before starting your family leave. Any holiday entitlement for the year that is not taken before starting your family leave can be carried over to the next holiday year.
- 6.3 For the avoidance of doubt this covers your full holiday entitlement.
- 6.4 Any holiday carried over should be taken immediately before returning to work or within three months of returning to work after the family leave.

7. Arrangements on termination

- 7.1 On termination of employment, you may be required to use any remaining holiday entitlement during your notice period. Alternatively, you will be paid in lieu of any accrued but untaken holiday entitlement for the current holiday year to date, plus any holiday permitted to be carried over from previous years under this policy or as required by law. You are entitled to be paid at a rate of 1/260th of your basic salary for each day of untaken entitlement.
